

World Physiotherapy Congress 2027 submission topics list

The following list of subjects are those used for the primary, secondary, and tertiary topics for session submissions at World Physiotherapy Congress 2027. They are used to decide what session categories the submissions fall under:

- Basic and translational science
- Cardiorespiratory
- Community based rehabilitation
- Complementary & Integrated health practices
- Critical care
- Dermato-functional physiotherapy
- Disability and rehabilitation
- Education
- Education: clinical
- Education: continuing professional development
- Education: methods of teaching and learning
- Globalisation: health systems, policies and strategies
- Health promotion and wellbeing/healthy ageing/physical activity
- Humanitarian response and management
- Innovative technology: information management, big data and artificial intelligence
- Innovative technology: rehabilitation technology
- Mental health
- Musculoskeletal / Orthopaedics
- Musculoskeletal: lower limb
- Musculoskeletal: spine
- Musculoskeletal: upper limb
- Neurology
- Neurology: multiple sclerosis
- Neurology: Parkinson's disease
- Neurology: spinal cord injury
- Neurology: stroke
- Occupational health and ergonomics
- Older people
- Oncology, HIV and palliative care
- Other
- Paediatrics
- Paediatrics: cerebral palsy
- Pain and pain management
- Pelvic, sexual and reproductive health
- Primary health care
- Professional issues
- Professional issues: business skills, leadership, advocacy and change management

- Professional issues: inclusive healthcare/healthcare equity
- Research methodology, knowledge translation and implementation science
- Service delivery/emerging roles
- Sport and sports injuries
- Sustainable & planetary health
- Systemic autoimmune diseases/rheumatoid arthritis
- Traditional healing/practices: exploring the interface
- Women's health